

“When God Ran”

Luke 15:1-32

1. In the story of the Prodigal Son, we literally have two _____ under one _____.
2. The adjective "wild" in verse 13 comes from a Greek term that means "wasteful" and has a strong connotation of _____.
3. In verse 17, "he came to his senses" literally means "he came to _____."
4. The young man's speech in verses 18-19 demonstrated maturity, responsibility, _____, and compassion for those he had harmed. He truly "returned to his senses."
5. His father threw aside his own _____ and _____ to meet his returning son, something no Middle Eastern father would have done.
6. His son had been lost and was now found, so they had to _____!
7. The older son's apparent concern for justice in verses 29-30 sheds light on an even _____ issue. He really did not know the _____ of his father.
8. Detestable rebels must come to their _____ before they will repent.
9. Respectable rebels must face their _____ before they can repent.